FORGIVENESS – THE KEY TO FREEDOM

During your upcoming Bethel SOZO, it is important that you prepare your heart to forgive those who have wronged you. Many people do not understand what forgiveness is and they have a hard time forgiving those who have deeply wounded and hurt them. They may say:

"Well, it isn't fair"... "it was not right"...or..."how can I forgive, they do not deserve it".

If these responses sound familiar and express how you feel you should know that:

Forgiveness does not mean that what they did to you was right.

Forgiveness does not mean that they "get off free".

Forgiveness does not mean that you give up all your rights.

Un-forgiveness:

Does not hurt the one who harmed you.

It only hurts you.

Binds you in a prison of torment.

Often causes you to have bitterness, hatred and anger.

Blocks the fullness of God in your life.

Extending forgiveness does the following wonderful things:

You get to step out of the way and let God have a direct line to that person.

It means you are relieved of the burden you have been carrying.

It frees you from a prison of torment.

It closes a door which allows the enemy to have access to you.

It allows you to say:

"I choose to give grace".

"I choose to let this person go into God's hands".

"I am not going to be their judge".

Take a few moments to reflect on the following scriptures:

Matthew 6:14-15

'For if you forgive men when they sin against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if you do not forgive men their sins your Father will not forgive your sins.'

Matthew 18:21-35

'Shouldn't you have had mercy on your fellow servant just as I had mercy on you? In anger his master turned him over to the jailers (tormentors) to be tortured, until he should pay back all he owed. This is how my heavenly Father will treat each of you, unless you forgive your brother from the heart' (v 33-35)

Luke 6:37

'Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn and you will not be condemned. Forgive and you will be forgiven.'

Forgiveness is a command from the Lord. It is a choice, not a feeling. Because Jesus freely forgave us for all our sins, we must also freely forgive. Forgiveness is vital to deliverance and freedom.
